EXTRA! EXTRA!

One week ago the representative of the Pittsburgh Dry Goods Company, who control the sale of the celebrated "Romburger" and "Alaska" Home-Made Country Flannels, notified us that they were overstocked with Blankets and Flannels and asked us to make them an offer for a large quantity. After a good deal of dickering our offer was accepted. Monday our check will be in their store and Monday we are going to sell Flannels and Blankets cheaper than they were ever sold in this country.

LOT 1 Embraces 95 pieces double width, every thread pure wool, heavy Country Flannels that are worth anywhere AT 19c 30c a yard.

LOT 2 Embraces 85 pieces 34-inch wide "Romburger" All-Wool Country Flannels (these are the heaviest Country Flannels made), regular price 38c. AT 25c

LOT 3 Embraces 23 pieces 31-inch wide, not all-wool, but good serviceable White Flannel. AT 12½c

LOT 4 Contains 290 pairs strictly All-Wool Red and Black Barred Country Blankets, large size, value $4 a pair, AT $2.48

Cloaks. We want every woman in this vicinity to see this great showing of Cloaks. After you have looked around come and compare our prices with others. You will not be urged to buy. Goods are shown with pleasure here. Without a doubt two of the greatest Cape bargains this or any other house ever offered are the following:

31-inch long, 94-inch sweep Astrakhan Capes, lined with heavy Marseilles Satin. AT $11 90
34-inch long Seal Plush Capes, trimmed in Brown Martini and Jet. AT $11 00

Fur Capes. Over 200 Fur, Astrakhan and Plush Capes here to select from. Brown and Black Martini, Coney, Electric Seal, Wool Seal and all other fashionable Furs. See them.

24-inch Black Coney Capes at $4 90

COAT OR CAPE—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

COAT Which Shall I Buy?
—OR—
CAPE! Where Shall I Buy It?

A glance into our large Cloak Room reveals an arena of activity and at the same time fully answers the question that now puzzles so many searchers for stylish and comfortable winter garments.

Here are tall women, whom nothing seems to please better than the long, double-breasted, tight-fitting Prince Albert Coats, the immensely full sleeves of which drop away in graceful folds. This is the ideal garment for a tall lady, although small and medium-sized women of slender build look equally as well in shorter garments of the same style.

Materials most in favor are Chinillas, Boucles and Diagonal Cheviots, Meltons, smooth corded Diagonals and Covert Cloths. Prices range from $3 95 to $50.

Here again, at the far end of this crowded department are women—short, medium, tall, fleshy, slender—all kinds, who think there's nothing equal to the full sweep Fur, Plush or Cloth Capes, of which we have already sold great quantities, ranging in price from $3 75 to $300.

Full Sweep Fur Capes from the best makers only are on sale here. Those consist of French and Electric Seal, Coney, Astrakhan, Monkey, Martini, Mink, Dyed Opossum, Persian, etc. We are selling the finest Mink Capes fully 25 below market value.

Come in and permit us to talk Coat or Cape—as you elect. If you're always worn Capes, would suggest a Coat for a change, or vice versa. We're perfectly at home on the Dress Goods question, too, and the low prices previously announced are still in force.

Looks like Infanticide.
Yesterday a dead baby was found at the second Sister Island, floating in the river. Word was sent to police headquarters here last evening, and Coroner Schultze was notified, but so late that he could not hold an inquest last night. He will go up to-day.

Four Cases Yesterday.
Max Tautel was up in the police court yesterday on the charge of being a common thief, and in default of $5 and costs, went up for thirty days. Sam Haden, a plain drunk, paid $5 and costs. West Drake, on the same charge, went up in default of $1 and costs, and Horace Collins, a disorderly case, got thirty days in default of $5 and costs.

A Veritable Musical Treat.
The excellence of each member of the Melpomene Concert company is such that a most delightful entertainment will be given to-morrow evening at the Opera House. The company consists of a combination of musicians who have obtained special prominence as vocal and instrumental soloists. Seats are now on sale at Mr. House's music store.

The Briesoch Hearing.
The hearing of Louis Briesoch, charged with the murder of his wife, was set for yesterday afternoon, but owing to Briesoch's attorney, Col. Arnett, being absent, it was put off till to-day. Mrs. Barbara Sly, who is a witness in this case, is the mother of Mrs. Taylor Strander, who was killed by her husband with a hatchet about twenty years ago.

Getting New Machinery.
Yesterday afternoon the Westinghouse automatic compound engine for the Wheeling Electrical Company's plant, on the South Side, arrived, and was hauled to the plant, drawn by eight horses. In crossing the Main street stone bridge over the creek the immense weight of the massive piece of machinery caused the roadway of the bridge to give way four or five inches in a spot. The company is also expecting other new and improved machinery, including a new dynamo.

Lot Sale at Hundred.
The auction sale of lots at Hundred, W. Va., began yesterday at 1 o'clock and was conducted by the well known auctioneer, W. S. Beckenbough, of Baltimore. The sale was well attended and a large number of lots were disposed of. The balloon ascension and closing sale will take place to-day at 1 o'clock. Considering the stringency in the money market, the sale was a big success.

Business Active with the Police.
Yesterday there was a fight in a house in Alley C. run by Mag Miller, and Officer Herbert arrested Harry Hill, John Wickham, Duke Riley and John Keyser for taking part in it. There was also a fight at "Smoky Row," and Officers Rohrl and Wilkie locked up Mrs. Atkinson, Nora Green, Toby Driller, and Liz Hardon. John Moore was run in by Officer Herbert for loitering in a house of ill fame, and George Mooney by Officer Moran on a plain drunk.

DEMOCRATIC SPEECHES

In the Fourth Ward Last Night by Three Shining Lights.

Last night Bischoff's hall, on Eleventh street, was well filled with a crowd that gathered to hear Alfred Caldwell, Mr. Julius Pollock and J. B. Wilson talk. Gen. Caldwell talked from 8 o'clock till after 10:30, and Messrs. Wilson and Pollock were forced to say little. Mr. Caldwell objected to a protective tariff as "robbery," and told a number of funny stories, telling them well, as he always does. The most notable part of his speech, however, was his roast of the A. P. A.'s. He got a little mixed in his appeal for Mr. Howard as a Catholic, saying if any Republican of that religion did not vote for him he ought to be visited with dire penalties. He remarked once that a man should not ask if a candidate was "a Protestant or a Democrat," but immediately corrected himself, only to add a minute later that during the war nobody asked a general if he was "a Protestant or a Republican."

M'KINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was wound and died in London because he is the author of a free trade tariff bill. These are significant facts.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

MARKET FEATURES.

A Slight Advance in Wheat in the Local Wholesale Market.

FIFTY-TWO CENTS IS THE PRICE

That the Cereal Now Commands Hereabouts—Cause of the Slight Advance—Hogs Continue to Decline and Cattle Are Steady—A Sharp Advance in Lemons—Wool Remains Unchanged at Disastrous Figures.

Perhaps the most important feature of the local markets this week is the slight advance in the local quotations on wheat. That cereal has been going begging lately at an even fifty cents for the bushel. Yesterday, however, it went up a notch and is now at fifty-two cents. The cause of the advance was learned from Mr. Walter Marshall, the feed dealer, who says that at the fifty cents farmers got disgusted and refused to sell, preferring to feed the wheat to their stock. A flouring mill over in Bethesda, across the river, not being able to get a local supply of wheat, sent off to Chicago for a car load, expecting, if anything, to get it here at a figure slightly below fifty cents. In this the mill men were disappointed, the freight being higher than was expected, and it cost them considerably more than fifty cents. This caused the advance noted, and it is predicted that there will be a still further advance, though none seem to think over fifty-eight cents will be reached.

Wool remains at unchanged quotations, fifteen and sixteen cents for fine washed and corresponding prices for the other grades. The sales, practically, amount to nothing, and the outlook has never been more gloomy for the American wool grower.

In live stock, hogs went down another peg and the bottom is not thought to have been reached yet. Cattle are steady, and so long as hogs are depressed cattle will bring good prices. Sheep, naturally, are despondent and depressed.

The new lemon crop is not quite ready to be marketed, and the old crop is almost exhausted; consequently prices have advanced sharply all along the line. Prices will probably recede, however, in a few days.

Georgia Minstrels.

Last evening at the Grand Opera House Richards & Pringle's minstrels again appeared to a good sized audience. Only one thing can be said of this aggregation of funmakers. They put up a show that is completely "pat," as the slang expression goes. Everything in the show fits in its place to precision, and the whole programme is connected in such a manner that from the time the curtain rises until it drops, it is a never ceasing, continued round of fun.

Wanted.

Two well furnished rooms; must connect by opening into each other. Toilet and bath accommodations required. Centrally located. Wanted permanently. Best of references. Would like board in same house. Best of references exchanged.

A LIFE WORK—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

A Life Work!

Our whole time, talent, capital and attention have been given to clothes buying and selling, to lifting Ready-Made Garments up to the level of the best made-to-order—care, not by dollars, by bold strokes of enterprise, not by high-handed assaults on your purses. If money saved in money made, we have bestowed a fortune on every wearer of our perfect Clothes. With every purchase has gone the satisfaction of custom tailoring, at half the cost. Open your eyes! Don't be blinded by prejudice. Don't be led by precedent. Judge by facts, not fallacies handed down from primitive times and kept alive only by the voice of jealousy. Making to measure is a relic of the days of stage coaching and town criers of knee breeches and silver buckles. Ready-Made Clothes is the child of the modern era. Popular, economical, perfect and progressive, true to fashion, true to quality, true to fit, true to you.

THE HUB CLOTHES HAVE RECEIVED THE HIGHEST AWARD IN THE HIGHEST TRIBUNAL—THE COURT OF PUBLIC APPROVAL.

Boys' and Children's Clothing!

Whether you seek satisfaction at the cheapest grade or the highest, we guarantee the best return for the money invested of any store in town. We guarantee you four times the variety of any store in town. Our new department opened this week for Boys' and Children's wear will be found by all odds the finest between Pittsburgh and Chicago.
